

18 MAY 2010

INTERNATIONAL
PRIZESWAN AWARDS: CIVIC BUILDINGS

The International Union of Architects announces the launch of the WAN AWARDS 2010 Civic Buildings sector.

This award is in recognition of buildings recently completed or un-built in the civic buildings sector: museums, theatres, police stations or any other public buildings, constructed over the last three years (since 1 January 2007).

Architect Eva Jiricna will be the UIA representative on the jury.

Submission deadline for the Civic Buildings award sector is 30 June 2010.

A 20% reduction of the registration fee is being offered. To benefit from this offer, go to the UIA web site:

<http://www.uia-architectes.org/texte/england/WAN10/2Civic.html>

Each section of this bi-monthly awards programme is devoted to a different sector. The following session will be for urban design projects.

The WAN AWARDS programme is organised by World Architecture News, an international online architectural magazine, UIA media partner.