

PARTICIPATE IN THE UIA DURBAN CONGRESS

The next UIA triennial congress will take place in Durban, South Africa, from 3 to 7 August 2014, on the theme ARCHITECTURE OTHERWHERE. Several ways to participate are still available as the programme is being finalised around a group of passionate and inspiring speakers.

SUBMIT AN ABSTRACT BEFORE 31 OCTOBER 2013

Architects from around the world are invited to submit their ideas on the main theme or one of the following subthemes:

RESILIENCE: the alleviation of poverty, spatial economies, and emergence

ECOLOGY: as related to notions of time, evolution, systems, processes, and long-term decision making

VALUES: new approaches to professional practice, teaching and raising awareness about architecture

Contribution abstracts must arrive in Durban before 31 October 2013.

REGISTER FOR THE STUDENT COMPETITION BEFORE 31 OCTOBER

'Warwick Junction', is a site in central Durban and the object of the international competition open to students of architecture from around the world. This project confrontation is based on the complex ecology of the Warwick Junction site, looking to utilise its economic, social, and cultural dynamic to imagine projects that increase well-being in the entire community. Registrations are open until 31 October 2013, and projects must be submitted before 31 March 2014.
